

The Communicator

for STUDENTS of

The Ohio State University at Lima and Lima Technical College

STUDENT LEADERS HONORED

The student leaders of Lima Technical College and the Ohio State University Lima were recognized for their contributions to campus life and their personal involvement in their individual organizations at a dessert reception held at the Old Barn Out Back Restaurant on Tuesday, May 9. The students were welcomed by Dr. James Countryman, President of Lima Technical College, Dr. Garlene Penn, Director of Enrollment Services, for the Ohio State University Lima, and Carole Enneking, Coordinator of Student Programs.

The "EMERGING STUDENT LEADER" awards were given to Diana Hanlin of BiGLOBAL (OSU) and Kimberly Nolte (LTC) of SADHA. The "DISTINGUISHED STUDENT LEADER" awards were bestowed upon Cindy Rammel, Ohio Student Education Association (OSU), and Gloria Schroeder, The Challengers (LTC.)

Those organizations that received recognition for their outstanding programs were: SOCIAL EVENT, Student Senate for the May Week Barbecue; EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM: SME Fall Conference; COMMUNITY SERVICE PROJECT, SADHA for the Safe Harbor Project and SME, Work Stations for the handicapped class at Emerson Elementary School. Honorable mention went to Friends of the Community/Human Services Club for their T-Shirt project; Student Senate Community Service Projects; and PTA, donating funds from a drawing to help a young stroke victim.

CONGRATULATIONS to ALL of our Student Organizations and their members. Your enthusiasm, leadership and commitment represent the spirit of our campus.

"BREAK THE SILENCE" WEEK ACTIVITIES INCREASE ABUSE AWARENESS

"BREAK THE SILENCE WEEK" (May 15-18) encourages the victims of abuse, both physical and sexual, to speak out. Only by bringing these events out in the open and confronting the enormity of this issue, will this vicious cycle of abuse be broken. The Office of Student Services will sponsor a week full of activities designed to inform and educate our campus population.

The video, "TWO MILLION WOMEN", will be shown in GA124 from 12:30-2:00 and on Tuesday, May 16 in GA125 from 1:00-3:00. On Wednesday, May 17 there will be a panel discussion on "DOMESTIC VIOLENCE" in GA 125 from 1:00-3:00. Panel members who will facilitate the discussion will be Donna Kauffman, Rochelle Twining, and Wilbert Murrell. On Thursday, from 3-5 in GA 125, there will be a second panel discussion on "DOMESTIC VIOLENCE" with Grace Banachowski, David Voth, Lyn Wibbler, and Sheila Cunningham.

During the week "THE CLOTHESLINE PROJECT", a visual display of T-Shirts designed by victims of abuse will be on view in the Courtyard from 9-5.

STUDENT ORGANIZATION NOTES

PSYCH CLUB SCHEDULES SPEAKER - On

Thursday, May 18, the Psychology Club will welcome Dr. Malloy from the Psychology Department at Wright State University. Dr. Malloy will describe the Doctorate of Psychology (Psy.D.) program. This meeting will be held in the Psychology Lab (GA 135) at noon. The Club extends an open invitation to all who are interested to attend this lecture.

DRAWING DATE NEARS - Be sure to get your tickets for the Friends of the Community/Human Services Club Drawing to be held on May 25. Tickets are $1.00 each and are available from any Club member. First prize is a one night Getaway and Dinner at the Lima Holiday Inn. The hotel has an indoor pool, jacuzzi spa, and workout room. There are lots of other great prizes including gift certificates and free dinners. All proceeds will benefit the Cheryl Allen Southside Center. The Club will have a Sales Table in Galvin basement from 9:30-3:00 on Monday, May 15.

STUDENT ART EXHIBIT OPENS SUNDAY

The Annual Juried Student Art Exhibit will open on Sunday, May 21 with a reception from 2:00-4:00 in Reed Hall Room 160. The awards ceremony will take place at 3:00. Over $200 in prize money will be given to this year's top winners. You still have time to enter. Bring your art works to Reed Hall Room 160 from 2-4 on Wednesday, May 17. This year's Juror is Greg Luginbuhl, Professor of Art at Bluffton College. The exhibit will continue through June 4.

ENTER THE RACE! - Would you like to be a Student Senate leader? Nominations are now being accepted for the Executive Officer positions in the Campus Government organization. Assemble a slate of a Presidential and two Vice Presidential candidates (one each from OSU and LTC) and enter your application form TODAY! Elections will be held on Tuesday, May 23 and Wednesday, May 24. See Melinda Talbott in GA 066 for applications and information.

CLASSICAL GUITARIST TO PERFORM ON TUESDAY

Classical guitarist Bob Ferguson will present a program of Renaissance and Baroque pieces for the guitar on Tuesday, May 16 at noon in Reed Hall Room 160. Ferguson received his degree in music with distinction from Indiana University. His teachers included Bolivian virtuoso Javier Calderon and American concert artist Michael Lorimer -- both proteges of famed guitarist Andres Segovia. Bob studied jazz guitar with West Coast guitarist Ted Greene and renowned jazz educator David Baker. He is currently working with Spanish maestro Ernesto Bitetti. Ferguson directs the guitar program for the Division of Music at Indiana-Purdue University in Fort Wayne and also in the Continuing Education department. On Saturdays, at noon, he has his own radio program, GUITAR SHOWCASE, on Station WBNI 89.1 FM.

Sports Teams

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR SPRING SPORTS TEAMS

As the varsity sports season comes to a close the campus says "Thanks" for a job well done.

The Men's and Women's Tennis Teams each finished with a strong 3rd place in the Conference. Hats off to Jaylene Evans who finished #1 Women's Singles champion and to Missy Siebeneck and Kare Kemmere who were 1st place women's doubles champions.

The Barons Baseball Team finished with a 9-3 standing in the ORCC which gave them a second place in the Conference. They finished with an 11-15 record overall. The first round of the State Tournament was played over this past weekend. (Results next week.)

The Golf Team faced some tough competition, yet finished the season in 7th place in the Conference.

Recreation

OPEN VOLLEYBALL TUESDAY - Tuesdays from 11-2 in the Gym is Volleyball Day. Work off that "mid-term" stress with a friendly game.
